INSTRUCTION REGARDING ORAL ARGUMENT APPEARANCES

All counsel presenting oral argument to the Court should arrive on the day of argument at the designated courtroom at least 20 minutes before the start of oral arguments for the day. They shall sign in with the courtroom deputy at that time. Counsel may remain in the courtroom or go to the attorney lounge next to the courtroom. If using the attorney lounge, it is counsel's responsibility to be ready for oral argument when his/her case is called. Counsel in cases other than the first one may listen to the oral argument in progress via an audio speaker located in the attorney lounge to gauge when to enter the courtroom for their own case.
